ABI Investigating Triple Homicide Involving Missing Twins

The Alabama Bureau of Investigation, a division of the Alabama Department of Public Safety, confirms that its agents are investigating a triple homicide in Lowndes County. The investigation involves the murder of a Hope Hull man and 9-year-old twins of Montgomery who were reported missing Monday.

On Tuesday, the Lowndes County Sheriff's Department requested the ABI's assistance after the bodies of one adult and two children were discovered on a dirt road off Alabama 21, near Hayneville. It has been confirmed that the bodies are those of Jack Mac Girdner, 73, and 9-year-old twins Jordan and Taylor Dejerinett.

ABI agents have developed a person of interest, Deandra Marquis Lee, a 22-year-old black male. Please see attached flier for more information on this person of interest.

If you have any information on Lee's whereabouts, please call ABI Special Agent Matt Bowman at (334) 242-1142 or any local law enforcement agency. If you wish to remain anonymous, please call the ABI's Crime Tip Line at (800) 392-8011.
